Employer Process for Employees Refusing to Return to Work:

Employers should provide the following response to employees who refuse to return to work after layoff and retain the documentation in the personnel file:

Employees who refuse to return to work (in essence, quitting) to obtain additional benefits under the regular UI program or the CARES Act qualifies as fraud. Sections 2104(f) and 2107(e) expressly provide that if an individual has obtained these benefits through fraud, the individual is ineligible for any additional benefit payments, must pay back the benefits, and is subject to criminal prosecution under 18 U.S.C. §1001.

Employers are to report these individuals using the DETR Unemployment Insurance Fraud Form:
